CIRCULAR NO. 68

To,
The Heads of all recognized
Secondary and Higher Secondary Schools, within the jurisdiction of this Board.

Sub: Celebration of World Students Day and Birth anniversary of Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam.

Sir/Madam,

- ❖ As we approach October 15th, Goa Board of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education (GBSHSE) would like to encourage all Schools under its esteemed institution to join in the celebration of World Students Day and the birth anniversary of the revered former President of India, Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam.
- ❖ Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam, known as the “Missile Man of India” was not only a distinguished scientist but also a visionary leader who inspired countless students and educators with his wisdom vision, and dedication to the field of education. His contribution to the field of science, technology and education are exemplary, and his birthday provides a meaningful opportunity for us to honour his legacy.
- ❖ To commemorate this day, it is recommended to organise special activities and events within your respective schools, including but not limited to:
 - (i) Inspirational Speeches:
Invite guest speakers or teachers to deliver motivational speeches to students, emphasizing the importance of education and values. Dr. Kalam stood for.
 - (ii) Essay and Art Competitions.
 - (iii) Science & Innovation Exhibitions
 - (iv) Tribute Assemblies.
 - (v) Book Reading:
Promote reading by dedicating time for students to read books authored by Dr. Kalam by other inspirational literature.
 - (vi) Community Service.
- ❖ All the educational institutions shall encourage students and teachers to remember and recall and revisit his contributions and get inspiration. That's also the vision of India under G-20, the NITI Ayog, ISRO missions, DRDO etc. Please follow up on below link:
