DO No. 1-14/2024-VE

New Delhi, the 18th September, 2024

Respected Madam/Sir,

The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, underscores the significance of counselling in schools as a key component of the educational framework. The policy advocates a holistic approach to career guidance, considering the individual needs, interests, and strengths of each student. NEP 2020 also promotes the use of technology and online resources to enhance career guidance services.

2. PSS Central Institute of Vocational Education (PSSCIVE), NCERT in collaboration with the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) has developed 2 volumes of Career Guidance materials on STEM, non-STEM, Skill and other miscellaneous (Inter-disciplinary) career pathways. 500 career cards in 21 domains have been developed. Each career card contains work profile, essential Personal Traits, Course fee, Scholarships, Loan prospects, Entry Pathway, Details about course providing Institutions (Govt./Private/Online course) and examples of pioneers in respective fields. Compilation of these career cards represents our commitment to providing every student with the tools and knowledge necessary to make informed decisions about their career and future.

3. The guidelines are available online at

<https://dsel.education.gov.in/careers/index.html>

An interactive mobile app is currently under development.

4. I would now request that the Career Guidance Book may be circulated to the SCERTs, DIETs, BRC, CRC and all the Schools in your State for use of students. These resources may be prominently displayed in schools, BRC, CRC, DIETs and SCERT. Further, SCERT of your State may also like to adapt to the local context as well as translate the Career Guidance Book for use of students.

5. You are aware that financial assistance under Samagra Shiksha is provided for one Academic Resource Person for career counselling at each block in BRC, SCERT and DIETs may train these resource persons for utilising these resources and disseminating them appropriately among students.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Prachi Pandey
