CIRCULAR No. 61

To,
The Heads of Secondary and Higher Secondary Schools,
under Jurisdiction of the Board.

Sub: Regarding First Terminal Exam SSC / HSSC November 2022 and to challenge
Answer Key in the subject.

Sir/Madam,

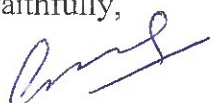

- I. As you are aware that the First Terminal Examination of SSC & HSSC is scheduled to commence from 10/11/2022 at 2.30 pm onwards (Evening session) for which the services of Teaching & Non-Teaching Staff as well as the School premises will be requisitioned by the Board.

In this regard, for smooth functioning of normal classes other than Class X and Class XII, the following arrangements may be made:-

- a. The Schools which are Main Centre/Sub-Centre shall leave the students by 1.00 pm on the Examination days and those schools which run in the afternoon session may call the students in the morning session or any other appropriate arrangement without disturbing Public Examination.
 - b. Teaching Staff and Non-teaching Staff appointed for Examination work shall be allowed to leave by 10.30 am to report to the concerned Examination Centre if supervising at other Centre, whereas if Invigilator(s)/Non-teaching staff are of the same Institution then appropriate arrangement may be done by the Head of the Institution.
 - c. Needless to mention that Examination Personnel like Centre/Sub-centre Clerk, Dy. Conductor and Conductor of Exam will have to report at the Examination Centre before 9.00 a.m or as desired by the Conductor of the Examination centre.
- II. As regard to any discrepancy in the question paper such as out of syllabus questions or probable more than one answer/s, shall be reported to this office within 24 hours after exam is over with suggestions only through email so as to place it before Scrutiny Committee.
- III. Answer Key may be challenged within a week's time once it is hoisted on the official website of the Board.

Heads of schools are requested to make appropriate arrangement to run their school during Public Examination days without hampering schedule of Public Examination. Also kindly disseminate the information to all concerned.

Yours faithfully,

(Geraldina L. Mendes)
Secretary
